From an old schedule of deeds relating to the Blakelow estate, I learn that their post nuptial settlement is dated 9 Nov. 1636. It is an indenture made between Stockett Lutwych of Swynnerton, clerk, of the first part; Richard Parker the elder of Audley, gent., of the second part; John Lutwych (son and heir-apparent of the said Stockett Lutwych) and Katherine his wife, John Mansell of Bagnall, co. Stafford, gent., and Richard Parker the younger, son and heir-apparent of the said Richard Parker the elder, etc., of the third part. The Blakelow estate appears to have been purchased in 1634 by Stockett Lutwych from John Popham of Littlecote, co. Wilts, Esq.

In 1680 is an indenture made between John Lutwych the elder of Blakelow, gent., and Katherine his wife, John Lutwych the younger and Edith his wife, Richard Lutwych of Snape in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, gent., Mary Lutwych of Blakelow, spinster, and Benjamin Thornbury, M.D., of the one part; and Thomas Mainwaring of Whitmore and Christopher Collier of Yarlet of the other part; whereby it was covenanted to levy a fine of lands in Stone and Swinnerton, which fine when levied should enure to the only sole and proper use and behoof of the said John Lutwych the younger and his heirs and assigns for ever. In 1682 the said John Lutwych the younger (described as heretofore of Blakelow, but now of the parish of St. George, Southwark, co. Surrey) and Edith his wife conveyed the estate to the aforesaid Richard Lutwych of Snape and his heirs for ever. Richard Lutwyche acquired in 1684, from William Jervis of Meaford, Abraham Fowler of Stafford, and Thomas Turton of Barlaston, the tithes of Blakelow; and in 1685 he and Elizabeth his wife sold the estate to Richard Avenant of Shellsley, co. Worcester, gent., and John Wheeler of Wollaston near Stourbridge, co. Worcester, gent., from whom it was acquired by the Feoffees of Foley's Hospital at Oldswinford, Stourbridge. [SHC 1885 204-5]
